

saturday

BEST BET

Michelle Gabel / The Post-Standard, 2007

JIMMY BLACK is one of the musicians scheduled to perform Saturday at Juneteenth.

Juneteenth in Clinton Square

Celebrate the richness of African-American culture on Saturday when the Juneteenth festival comes to Clinton Square.

The event features music, food, dance, arts and crafts, historical presentations and more.

The festival kicks off with a parade at 10 a.m. at Jubilee Park, making its way to Clinton Square.

The event is free.

THE DETAILS

WHAT: Juneteenth.

WHEN: Noon Saturday.

WHERE: Clinton Square, Syracuse.

COST: Free admission.

INFORMATION: Call 473-4330 or visit www.syracusejuneteenth.org.

ENTERTAINMENT SCHEDULE:

Main Stage

12:50 p.m.: Abundant Life.

1:30 p.m.: M. Island, Brother Maniac, Sammy Bravo, B.E.

2:20 p.m.: Bells of Harmony.

3:10 p.m.: John Puma.

4:10 p.m.: Noble.

4:25 p.m.: Brownskin.

4:55 p.m.: Miss Juneteenth Festival recognition.

5:25 p.m.: Soul Mind.

6:35 p.m.: About Time.

7:30 p.m.: As Is.

8:15 p.m.: Diversity.

9:15 p.m.: BlackLites.

Jubilee Stage

1:10 p.m.: Cocochynna Bags, JB, D'zyre Edwards, Nyrierri Edwards, Patrice, Tony Stone, Bo Bo Camp, Reality, Akuma Roots.

2 p.m.: Jimmy Black, Nyesha McGriff, J.B., Nadia Garrett.

2:50 p.m.: Rinnessy, L. Ness, Lil Kayouz, Sabrena Thomas.

3:40 p.m.: Dance competition.

5:05 p.m.: Big Moe, Derronda Jones, Angela Stroman, DiamondWest.

6:10 p.m.: Will Star, Rayelle Church, Zyierri Edwards.

EACH WEEK, WE HIGHLIGHT EVENTS IN EACH OF THE CATEGORIES WE THINK YOU'LL FIND INTERESTING.

FAMILY: People of all ages